Christ of the Celts: The Healing of Creation: Calvin 301/ Wednesdays, Oct. 4, 2017, Feb. 7 and April 18, 2018/ 6:30-8:00 p.m. Written by J. Philip Newell, one of the foremost experts on Celtic spirituality, this book offers a reflection on the "forgotten" Jesus, the Christ of the Celtic tradition. The Celtic Christ offers new hope for achieving harmony, healing, and renewal for human beings and for all creation. Newell connects the Celtic tradition with our more conventional Christian beliefs and offers a vision of concern for healing creation and the environment—for the presence of the sacred in nature and all creatures. This was the essence of the ancient vision of Christ. Christ of the Celts shows us a new picture of who Christ is today combined with the ancient reverence for harmony with God and nature. Each class will be a group discussion of assigned chapters and will end with a worship service. Class contact: Gloria Johnson, 919-823-3425, ext. 207 or gjohnson@whitememorial.org.

Duplicate classes Monday evening 6:30-7:30 p.m. and Tuesday 10:00-11:00 a.m. You are invited to spend Christmas with Mary. Imagine Jesus from Mary's point of view—proud of her son, in awe of his gifts and mission, guided by love for him as a person and so much more. In this book we begin at the end, with Mary at the Crucifixion and Resurrection; travel back in time as she witnesses Jesus' life and ministry; and ends at the beginning, with the Christ Child born in a stable.
