

15TH ANNUAL WMPC WOMEN'S RETREAT

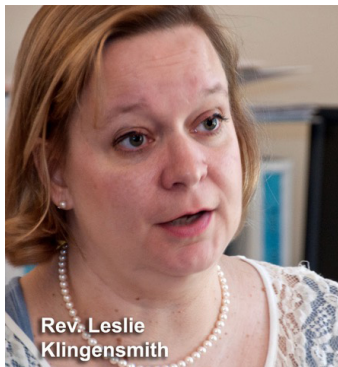

THE HOLY SPIRIT SHOWS UP HOW? WHEN? WHY?

WMPC WOMEN'S RETREAT
FEBRUARY 8-10 2019 | PINEHURST

"The Holy Spirit Shows Up...How? When? Why?"

Romans 8:6 NRSV

Have you ever wondered what or who the Holy Spirit is or how the Holy Spirit works in and through us? Don't miss this year's retreat and hear how Leslie Klingensmith will address these questions and more.

Rev. Leslie
Klingensmith

Leslie Klingensmith, is the Pastor of St. Matthew Presbyterian Church in Silver Spring, MD, where she has served for 16 years. In September 2018, she celebrated 25 years of ordained ministry in the PCUSA. She received her Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School and her Doctor of Ministry from Columbia Theological Seminary. Leslie is married to Edward (Ed) Taylor, a retired PCUSA pastor, and they have two sons, Sam (age 15) and Greer (age 12). In addition to full time ministry, Leslie loves hanging out with her family, biking, baking, cooking, hiking, music (recorded and live), listening to podcasts, walking the family dog (Angus) and drumming. She is an avid reader and has a personal goal of reading at least 70 books a year. Even after a quarter century, Leslie still loves ministry and is grateful every day that it is her calling. She loves to hear peoples' stories about how and when God shows up in their lives. Above all, she is hopeful and thankful.

This is Leslie's third time speaking at the Women's Retreat. She is a favorite of retreat participants with her gift of teaching and the way she shares "real-life" applications, all with a wonderful sense of humor.
